

Capitán Carlos Gavidia Castro

Salvadoran Air Force pilot | 1915 - 1944

HIS FAMILY

HIS SIBLINGS

- Second of ten children of José Gavidia and Carlota Castro.
- José Gavidia Castro, the eldest brother, lived to age 105 (died 2016).
- José Antonio Gavidia Castro, a younger brother, also served in the army.
- Maternal uncle: José Cipriano Castro Bernal (1895-1958), of Santa Ana.

HIS LIFE

- 1931 Entered the Military School as a cadet at age 15.
- 1933 Graduated as a second lieutenant (Oct 20).
- 1936 Chosen for the Aviation School at Ilopango; promoted to lieutenant.
- 1937 Became a military pilot on Jan 5; later married María Teresa.
- 1939-42 Left aviation; managed haciendas El Ángel and El Carmen.
- 1943 Returned to the air force; promoted to captain (Nov 12).
- 1944 Died April 24 after the failed April uprising.

Remembered

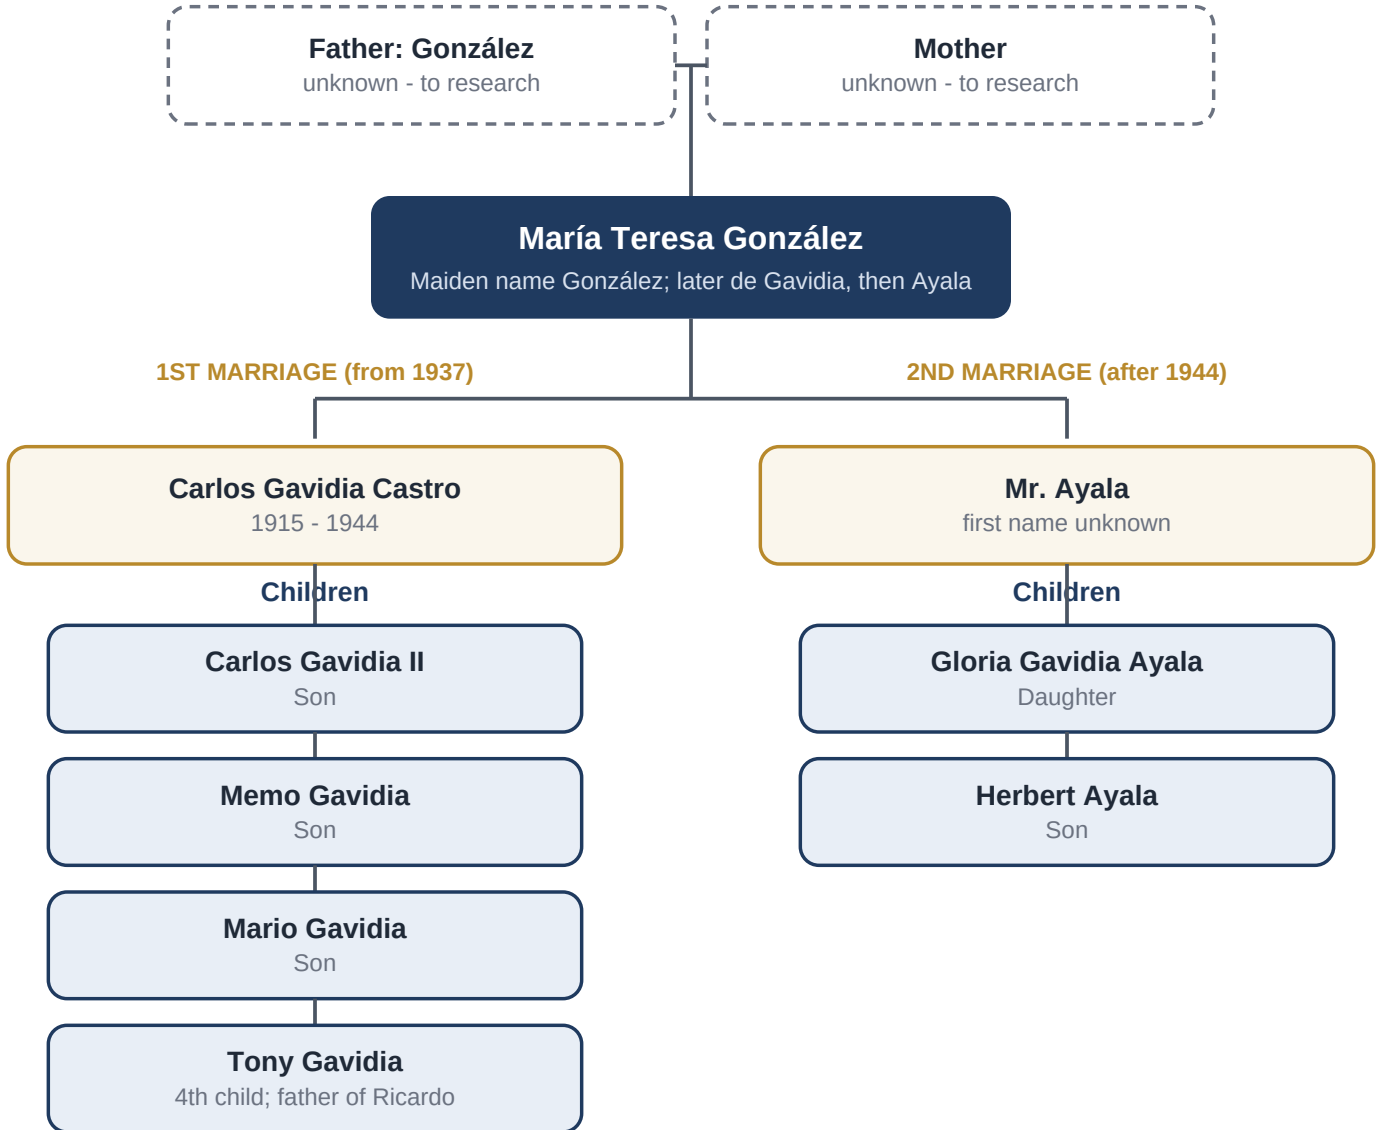

Some of his personal belongings are on permanent display at the National Aviation Museum in Ilopango, shared by the Gavidia family.

Sources: Flotilla Aérea, "Capitán Carlos Gavidia Castro (1915-1944)" (with Ricardo Gavidia); Gavidia family accounts. Birthplace per that article; family records may differ and should be confirmed with a birth record.

The Family of María Teresa González

Grandmother | two marriages | author of Pugna a un dictador (1987)

HER PARENTS

NEXT STEPS TO FIND HER FAMILY

1. Her 1937-38 marriage record to Carlos Gavidia Castro (should name her parents).
2. Her baptism record (about 1910-1918) and her second marriage record.
3. Her book Pugna a un dictador (1987) for family background.
4. Ask Gloria and Herbert for her papers, photos, and family stories.